INSTRUCTIONS TO CANDIDATES

Please read these instructions carefully, but do not open the question paper until you are told that you may do so. This paper is Section 2 of 2.

There are four questions in this paper, of which you should answer one.

You should write your answer in the space provided in this question paper. Please complete this section in black pen.

You can use the blank inside front and back covers for rough working or notes, but no extra paper is allowed. Only answers in the space indicated in the paper will be marked.

Dictionaries may NOT be used.

Please wait to be told you may begin before turning this page.

This question paper consists of 9 printed pages and 3 blank pages.

This page is intentionally left blank for your rough working or notes.

Choose one of the quotations below and use the space provided in this question paper to discuss it.

Your answer will be assessed taking into account your ability to think analytically, produce a coherent argument, and write with clarity and precision.

1. 'To speak a language is to take on a world, a culture.'

Frantz Fanon (1925-1961)

2. 'What people say, what people do, and what they say they do are entirely different things.'

Margaret Mead (1901-1978)

3. 'Experience is not what happens to you; it's what you do with what happens to you.'

Aldous Huxley (1894-1963)

4. 'How quick come the reasons for approving what we like.'

Jane Austen (1775-1817)

Write your answer in the space below.
